My Australian Dream

In a quiet corner of the Dream Library, there's a tiny shelf made of sun-warmed eucalyptus wood. On it rests a glowing dream shaped like Australia — full of golden beaches, whispering gum trees, and friendly creatures who hop, glide, or waddle by to say hello.

Today, that dream is yours to explore.

Write about your Australian Dream:

- What magical place in Australia does your dream begin?
- Which creatures join you — a curious koala, a cheeky kookaburra, a gentle kangaroo, or someone entirely new?
- What colours swirl through your dream — ocean blues, outback reds, wattle yellows?
- What feeling does your dream carry — courage, joy, adventure, peace?

Finish the sentence:

✨ "My Australian Dream is..."
